Family Name	Corrigan
Given Name	Annette
Person ID	1285830
Title	Stakeholder Submission
Туре	Web
Family Name	Corrigan
Given Name	Annette
Person ID	1285830
Title	JPA 7: Elton Reservoir Area
Туре	Web
Soundness - Positively prepared?	NA
Soundness - Justified?	NA
Soundness - Consistent with national policy?	NA
Soundness - Effective?	NA
Compliance - Legally compliant?	NA
Compliance - In accordance with the Duty to Cooperate?	NA
Redacted general comment - Please add any comments not comment - Please add any comments not	I live in the area that forms part of this plan. The proposed land is a flood plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding.
comment - Please add	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts comment - Please add any comments not	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains. The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already comment - Please add any comments not	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains. The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested comment - Please add any comments not	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and comment - Please add any comments not	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and comment - Please add any comments not addressed above	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents.
comment - Please add any comments not addressed above	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents. Corrigan comment - Please add any comments not addressed above  Family Name Given Name	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows. The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents. Corrigan  Annette comment - Please add any comments not addressed above  Family Name Given Name Person ID	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents.  Corrigan  Annette  1285830
comment - Please add any comments not addressed above  Family Name Given Name Person ID Title	plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.  The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.  The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.  The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents.  Corrigan  Annette  1285830  JPA 8: Seedfield

	1 laces for Everyone representation 2021
Soundness - Consistent with national policy?	NA
Soundness - Effective?	NA
Compliance - Legally compliant?	NA
Compliance - In accordance with the Duty to Cooperate?	NA
Redacted general comment - Please add any comments not addressed above	I live in the area that forms part of this plan. The proposed land is a flood plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding. There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.
	The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.
	The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.
	The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents.
Family Name	Corrigan
Given Name	Annette
Person ID	1285830
Title	JPA 9: Walshaw
Туре	Web
Soundness - Positively prepared?	NA
Soundness - Justified?	NA
Soundness - Consistent with national policy?	NA
Soundness - Effective?	NA
Compliance - Legally compliant?	NA
Compliance - In accordance with the Duty to Cooperate?	NA
Redacted general comment - Please add any comments not addressed above	I live in the area that forms part of this plan. The proposed land is a flood plain, Bury Council has spent □48m on flood defences on the River Irwell, to build on this part of the greenbelt would put other houses at risk of flooding.
	There is no suitable infrastructure, health care or schools to support this plan. Currently pupils are having to travel to get their education, this puts our young people at risk, particularly in the winter. This plan will affect climate change through removing trees and concreting over flood plains.
	The area houses many protected species for breeding. We have already seen a decline in hedgehogs. Other inhabitants include the greater crested newt, deer, herons, foxes, Canada geese, kestrels, frogs and swallows.

Places for Everyone Representation 2021

The area is used by dog walkers, cyclists, ramblers and parents who wish their children to see the areas natural beauty. COVID has already created more interest in the area and offers good protection of our physical and mental health.

The map provided is not detailed enough for residents to comment on, and does not identify what is going where, resulting in anxiety amongst residents.