The reasons for the decision are:

The Deputy Mayor has committed to provide an agreed amount of financial support to both Adult and Children's Safeguarding boards for 18/19 only on submission of plans which illustrate how the Board is directly contributing to the priorities set out in the Standing Together Plan 2018-21.

This decision will contribute to priorities of the the Greater Manchester strategy in the following ways:

Priorities - 1,2,6,8,9,10

Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable adults directly contributes to the achievement of the above priorities by supporting the most vulnerable to lead safe, healthy and rewarding lives.

Financial comments:

Financial support to Safeguarding Childrens and Safeguarding Adults Boards has already been identified in the Police and Crime team spending plan and the Deputy Mayor has previously agreed the allocations, subject to submission of safeguarding plans from each of the boards.

Legal comments:

No leagal comments sought

Risk Assessment:

Financially contributing to the safeguarding arrangements will reduce the risk of other statutory parnters failing to contribute which may result in reduced capacity to address these strategic issues

Is safeguarding of children relevant and has this been considered:

Directly relevant as over. The contributions will not provide a service directly to children but support their strategic capacity to drive forward the safeguarding agenda locally.

Is safeguarding of vulnerable adults relevant and has this been considered:

Directly relevant as over
The contributions will not provide a service directly to vulnerable adults but support their strategic capacity to drive forward the safeguarding agenda locally.
